

This work has been submitted to NECTAR, the Northampton Electronic Collection of Theses and Research.

Conference or Workshop Item

Title: The future of Holocaust memorialisation in Lithuania

Creators: Allwork, L.

Example citation: Allwork, L. (2012) The future of Holocaust memorialisation in Lithuania. Workshop presented to: Visit of Lithuanian Historians to the Imperial War Museum, Bessborough House, London, 24-25 September 2012.

Version: Programme

<http://nectar.northampton.ac.uk/4977/>

Visit of Lithuanian historians to Imperial War Museum

24-25 September, 2012

Programme (DRAFT)

23 September

Arrival of Lithuanian historians to London:

Dr. Kamilė Rupeikaitė, Deputy Director for Research, Vilna Gaon State Jewish Museum.

Dr. Arunas Bubnys, Director of the Department Genocide and resistance research department.

Ms. Neringa Latvytė-Gustaitienė, Head of History Department, Vilna Gaon State Jewish Museum.

Ms. Vilma Juozevičiūtė, Chief specialist for public relations, Department Genocide and resistance research department.

24 September

10.00 Meeting with Ms. Rachel Donnelly, Holocaust Learning Officer, Imperial War Museums, Lambeth Road London, SE1 6HZ.

10.30 Visiting exhibition (Audio guide)

12.30 Participation at the Students' feedback from exhibition

13.00 Lunch

13.45 Meeting with Grant Rogers (informal side of education)

14.30 Visiting Crimes against humanity exhibition and meeting IWM historians (TBC)

15.30 Meeting with Ms. Rachel Donnelly and colleagues from other organisations (e.g. Holocaust Educational Trust)

16.30 End of the program at IWM

25 September

10.00 Meeting with Francios Guesnet, Sidney and Elizabeth Corob Lecturer in Modern Jewish History Department of Hebrew and Jewish Studies, UCL, Gower Street, London WC1E 6BT.

11.00 Meeting with Dr Larissa Allwork, The University of Northampton.

16.50 Flight to Vilnius (TBC)

Contact person at the Lithuanian Embassy: Rita Valiukonytė, Cultural attaché, Lithuanian Embassy in the UK, Lithuania house, 2 Bessborough Gardens, SW1V 2JE.